

JUDGE SCOTT IS BACK IN HARNESS

Opens Henrico Court and Sets Dates for Trial of Three Bad Cases.

Five indictments for felony charges were returned yesterday morning by the grand jury of the Henrico county Circuit Court, and the trial dates for three capital cases set on the opening day of the regular April term, Judge R. Carter Scott, restored to health, took his place on the bench when court opened, and unless he has overestimated his strength, will hold the term in person.

Three particularly serious cases stand out among the numerous felony charges to be tried this term: W. G. Wynne, a white man seventy years old, charged with an attempted capital offense against Marie McGuffin; Edward Foster, the Henrico "inspired preacher" tried once already for criminal, and continued misconduct toward a young ward; and James Clark, indicted for the same offense, Clark was tried, convicted, and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary, but the verdict was set aside by the court. Foster has retained L. O. Wendenburg, as his counsel. Wynne, jumping his bail bond, but was rearrested in Toledo, Ohio, and has been in the Henrico jail ever since.

Wynne will be tried on April 9; Clark on April 11; and Foster on April 15. The grand jury returned the following true bills: Moten Lewis, colored, for a felony, case set for April 13; Virginia Smith, colored, for arson, case set for April 6; W. D. Dobbs, for a felony, case set for April 4; Fred Ford, colored, for arson, case set for April 4; Willie Williams, colored, for a felony, case set for April 10.

Delegates to Conference.
Governor Mann yesterday designated five delegates to represent Virginia at the Southern Conference on Woman and Child Labor, to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., Tuesday, April 2. The Secretary of the State will issue commissions to the following: H. P. Fitzgerald, Danville; William S. Moore, Norfolk; Mrs. B. H. Munford, Richmond; R. C. Davison, Richmond; and James J. Cramer, Richmond.

CATARRH EASILY CONQUERED

Germs Destroyed; Discharge Stopped; Sore Membrane Quickly Healed—Often Restores Hearing.

HYOMEL, a pleasant antiseptic, germ-destroying, vaporized air breathed over the entire membrane of the nose and throat and deep into the lungs over the bronchial or air tubes will kill catarrh germs; soothe and heal the sore catarrhal spots and stop the discharge of mucus in a few days. Sprays, douches, snuffs or ointments won't end catarrh, because they are not penetrating enough to get where the germs are.

So surely does HYOMEL (pronounced High-o-mel) clear up the head and penetrate into the innermost recesses of the entire nasal tract that it very often drives out the catarrhal conditions in the tubes that connect the ears with the nose, and by so doing restores hearing to persons who have heard they were destined to be deaf for life.

If you have catarrh, dear reader, do not forget that HYOMEL is a wonderful remedy for catarrh and is free from cocaine or any other injurious drug.

A complete outfit, which includes a hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs $1.00. If you already own an inhaler you can get a bottle of HYOMEL for only 50 cents at pharmacists the world over.

The Tragle Drug Co. guarantees it.

GOVERNORS FILE NEGRO "DOCTOR" PLEA FOR STATES TO STAND TRIAL

Great Battle Over Railroad Rates Is Begun in Supreme Court.

Washington, April 1.—The battle over State railroad rates for freight and passenger business began to-day before the Supreme Court of the United States. The eighteenth Missouri rate case was taken up for consideration first. Time for argument was extended until next Thursday.

Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City, Mo., first addressed the court. He laid the groundwork for an extended argument that both the maximum freight rates of Missouri and its twenty-two passenger law meant confiscation of the property of eighteen railroads within the State.

Briefs similar to that presented by Governor Harmon were filed by permission of the court by the attorneys-general of South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, and by the railroad commissions in Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, South Dakota, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Missouri and Texas. Each State will be affected directly or indirectly by the decision.

The plea of the Governors, all of whom have been active in railroad legislation and litigation, was in the appeal from United States Circuit Judge Walter Sanborn's decision in the Minnesota railroad rate case involving the right of a State to regulate commerce within its borders.

The decision of Judge Sanborn, the brief contends, took the power of States to regulate railroads from the States and left the railroads free to charge whatever rates they please in their traffic within the States. He took the stand that if a State cannot regulate the railroads within its borders, then there was no power to regulate them at all.

The appealed case grew out of that of Shepard versus Simpson, in which the Minnesota railroad rate regulation, particularly the 2-cent a mile passenger rate law, were attacked as confiscatory.

Judge Walter Sanborn, who heard the case in the Federal court, held that exercise of the right of States to regulate railroads may be enjoyed by the courts because of the actual or probable effect which it may be shown to have on interstate commerce through the operation on those engaged therein of conditions of competition, location of commercial centers and railroad lines, and of what were called "business necessities."

The local rates fixed by that State were held unlawful and enjoined because the court found that because of their carriers would have to change existing interstate rates. The State's regulation of its own internal commerce was called "business necessities."

It is not held in the Minnesota case that the law was passed or the order of the railroad board made for the purpose of regulating interstate commerce, according to the brief, but only that they are invalid because of their effects on such commerce.

The brief declared "the right of State regulation extends to every business conducted within its borders, although such business may also extend into interstate commerce."

IN POLICE COURT

Leading Offenders Held for Grand Jury and Others Sentenced.

The case of Thomas Harris, colored, who viciously bit E. J. Jones, white, Saturday night, was continued yesterday in Police Court until April 11.

Randall Gray, colored, was held for the grand jury for cutting Mrs. Glasgow. He was also fined $25 for maintaining an improper house at 25 North Jefferson Street.

Henry Smith, colored, who hit M. L. Thornton, of South Richmond, on the head with a beer bottle Saturday night, was found guilty of assault and fined $100 and costs, and placed under $200 bond for six months.

James Taylor, colored, was held for the grand jury on the charge of entering the stable of A. G. Quarles and stealing a mule, valued at $300. Taylor was arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer Thurman in South Pine Street, where he was attempting to dispose of the animal for $25.

George Green was sent to jail for ninety days for stealing a bicycle from H. Moltz, Jr.

Antonio Freardricie Indicted by Grand Jury for Causing Death of Mrs. Stagg.

Two indictments, one for murder and the second for performing an illegal operation, were returned yesterday by the grand jury in the Hastings court against Antonio Freardricie, the negro herb doctor, held responsible by a coroner's jury for the death of Mrs. Rose Stagg, wife of J. Tilden Stagg, a painter, of 11 Government Road. Mrs. Stagg died on March 8 a few minutes after it is said, she had received treatment from the negro.

The true bills found hold Freardricie directly responsible for the death of Mrs. Stagg.

The case is one of the most shocking in the history of this city, and when it is called for trial every effort will be made by the prosecution to give the negro the full penalty of the law.

Freardricie, who is now in the City Jail, is an ex-convict, having served a term in the penitentiary for a serious offense against a negro girl.

Indict Young Handits.

Charles Fox and Norman Johnson, the young white men, who it is alleged, held up and robbed W. B. Smith, a druggist, at Pine and Spring Streets, were indicted for robbery. They entered the drugstore about 9 o'clock Saturday night several weeks ago and took W. B. Smith, a fashion hold up man, to the point of a pistol. While one held the cash drawer and safe, the other fled the cash drawer and safe. They made a successful escape, but were arrested about one week later by detectives.

Other indictments returned were as follows: Lee Childress and Christopher Childress, feloniously assaulting L. T. Burnett; Pat Harris, feloniously assaulting James Simpson; Cora Hayes, having cocaine in her possession; F. H. Jackson, four indictments for home-breaking. He is accused of entering the dwellings of W. G. Minor, J. M. Woodlin, B. J. Carter and W. M. Harris; John Harvey, forgery. He is alleged to have forged the name of Mary Harvey to a check; John Nicholas and Linna Haskins, having cocaine in their possession; Edward Powell, feloniously assaulting Joseph Jones; Albert Robinson, feloniously assaulting Eva Andreini; G. W. Stokes, entering the dwelling of W. B. Smith; Woodson Slater, entering an outhouse of William R. Jones; Lizzie Stokes, assaulting and robbing W. T. Williamson; Lucy Sloan, grand larceny. She is charged with robbing the home of A. H. Straus; Frank Thompson, feloniously assaulting Gertrude Johnson; Roland Watkins, feloniously assaulting Zelma L. Smith; Preston Williams and Ernest Johnson, robbing the storehouse of Moses Amster; Preston Williams, robbing the storehouse of Steiner Brothers.

May Feed Masses With Strange Food

Plant and Animal Life in Deep Seas Found to Have Great Food Value.

Despite pessimistic estimates of the possible failure of the agricultural districts being able to feed the great masses of population of our cities, scientists claim to have discovered sufficient food supply deep down beneath the ocean wave to make the world famine-proof for all time.

They used to say: "We eat what you eat, and we will tell you what you are," but the complication of starfish soup, seaweed salad and jellyfish desecration was not thought of when that adage was originated.

To those who are curious to know what sort of food the deep sea will provide, pictures of considerable accuracy can be furnished, as deep sea diving has been developed to such an extent that artists have been enabled to correctly portray on paper what they found on the bottom of the ocean world.

Photography is difficult or impossible at such depths but the knowledge of the wonder world of Neptune's domain needs more than the ordinary photographic methods to properly portray it.

For this reason an artist was employed to produce a special color plate, which is now being distributed by The Times-Dispatch to its readers.

Dr. Wiley has told the people of this country that there is no need of their eating white and blue ice cream and brilliantly colored candies and confections, but they still do it.

The development of the food value of the deep sea products ought to be popular in America, considering the well known partiality for colors, against which Dr. Wiley protests, as artist-divers declare that it is a rainbow world of beautiful iridescent colors that is found fathoms down in the briny depths.

This picture is only one of the many found in Everybody's Cyclopedic. Join the procession of progress. Clip all coupons.

CASH IS REMOVED TO RICHMOND JAIL

Negro Arrested as Assailant of Miss Rouse Partially Identified.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., April 1.—Addie Cash, the negro who was arrested last night charged with being the assailant of Miss Myrtle Rouse, a nineteen-year-old school teacher, after being partially identified to-day by that young woman, was removed to the jail in Richmond early this evening. There were no threats against Cash, but in order to remove as far as possible all causes for the spirit of unrest which has prevailed here during the past day or two, it was considered wise to send the negro away from Ashland. Cash left here on the 6:45 P. M. train over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad in custody of Sheriff Hall, by whom he was turned over to the authorities in Richmond.

Preliminary Hearing To-Day.
To-morrow morning the negro will be taken to Hanover Courthouse for a preliminary hearing.

The authorities here spent a busy day to-day in continuing the search for the assailant of Miss Rouse. Several clues were followed, but so far as is known at the present time there is no evidence or suspicion against any other person than Cash. During the day five negroes, including one Robert Jackson, Potel, White and Cash—were taken at different times from custody. But Cash, who was declared, about the size of the man who attacked her, and while she was not absolutely positive of her identification, she expressed the belief that he was the guilty party. He was thereupon taken back to jail, and it was then determined to send him to Richmond.

Miss Rouse is calm.
Miss Rouse is still at the home of Samuel R. Carter, a Richmond attorney, where she was carried Saturday night after the attack, which was committed across the road from the Carter home. She is now in a rooming house, and she is not at all disturbed by the effects of the terrible struggle she had with her assailant, and was very calm when she was taken to the hospital to-day.

Cash in Richmond Jail.
In custody of Sheriff Hall, Cash was brought to the city jail last night for safekeeping. It being feared that there might be some demonstration if the prisoner was left in the lockup at Ashland.

He will be taken to the jail this morning, according to instructions left by Sheriff Hall, and taken to Hanover county courthouse for a preliminary hearing.

Marriage Licenses.
The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the office of the clerk of the Hastings Court: Ernest B. Smith and Bertha E. Grant; Moses P. Harris and Lillian M. Moore; Walter L. Lefew and Mary St. Clair Smith.

ALCOHOL IS BORATED

THERE is no other Talcum Powder so soft, so keeping, so being (and that) might be some demonstration if the prisoner was left in the lockup at Ashland.

He will be taken to the jail this morning, according to instructions left by Sheriff Hall, and taken to Hanover county courthouse for a preliminary hearing.
